Welcome back to what is shaping up to be a fabulous Term 3. We had a great start to the term this morning with the students ready at lines, looking very smart in their school uniform and all organised for learning. I hope this continues every day with all students at lines on time each day. This is where they hear any important messages for the week.

The Transition students all looked so wonderful this morning ready for a very busy, fun filled day. If you have a child who will be enrolling in Kindergarten in 2015 they could be attending our free Transition class each Tuesday and Thursday which will prepare your child for starting school. Please contact me on 6772 3736 for further information.

Next week Drummond will be celebrating NAIDOC week. We have many activities and events for all students, teachers and families to participate in as we celebrate our student's Aboriginal culture. Please come along and join us.
